LAWSAN; B.U CHAPTER ORGANOGRAM

This organogram vests the constitution as the sole and only authority where every single body established under the LAWSAN BU Chapter derives its powers from. According to this structure, every single body (Executive, Senate, Judiciary, SABs, Chambers and Committees) is expected to report back to the Executive President who supervises the activities of these bodies while the ICC is to be controlled by the SABs who in turn report the activities of the ICC to the Executive President. In other words, the quasi-autonomy power of anybody no longer exists.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This Constitution amends the “Constitution of the Law Students’ Association of Nigeria; BABCOCK University Chapter, 2007”, and enacts a newly amended “Constitution of the Law Students’ Association of Nigeria; BABCOCK UNIVERSITY CHAPTER, 2025 as amended in 2026 which applies to students of Law in Babcock University which was passed by the LAWSAN; B.U CHAPTER General Congress for the Association on the 16th day of April, 2026 and accented by the President, LAWSAN on the 16th day of April, 2026. This constitution, in effect shall repeal the previous Constitution of the Law Students’ Association of Nigeria; BABCOCK University Chapter, 2019 as well as the Constitution of the Law Students’ Association of Nigeria; BABCOCK University Chapter, 2023.

Shopein Tolukeji Dorcas
PRESIDENT, LAWSAN; B.U CHAPTER (2025/2026)

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE LAW STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION OF NIGERIA; BABCOCK UNIVERSITY CHAPTER, 2025 (AS AMENDED IN 2026)

PREAMBLE

We the members of the Law Student's Association of Nigeria, Babcock University Chapter, in pursuit of justice, equality and fair play, having solemnly and firmly resolved to constitute ourselves into an Association under God, dedicated to the promotion of learning, advocacy, practice of law and legal ethics in the society, and having regard for the Seventh-Day Adventist philosophy of education in Babcock University, do hereby make, enact and give to ourselves this constitution.
